DataWorks
(Data Integration Solution)

FLOW

ENTERPRISE version

A single, turnkey interoperability solution in one easy to use dashboard with increased visibility of all device integrations.

Standard features

Web dashboard

The dashboard displays an overview of all your interface connections. View each connection metrics in a simple display and configure interfaces connection details.

Scalable to business growth

Dynamic connectivity of devices provide an easily scalable solution that matches needed growth for your business.
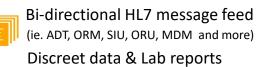

Alert & Notifications

DataWorks allows you to configure notifications that meet your tailored requirements. Alerts warn of issues to prevent disruption on workflow and operations.

Vendor Neutral

Vendor-neutral infrastructure that supports secure information exchange between disparate trusted systems

Interface Connections

Bi-directional HL7 message feed
(ie. ADT, ORM, SIU, ORU, MDM and more)
Discreet data & Lab reports

Encapsulated pdf support (base 64)

DataWorks also supports: FHIR, XML, JSON

Connectivity protocol

TCP/IP, Batch, Web services, Database

Network connection

HTTPS, SFTP, VPN

Security

Data encryption

Provides methods to help safeguard and protect electronic health information (ePHI) through the encryption of data, both while in transit and at rest. Uses state of the art encryption with industry standard encryption methods for all activity.

Audit logging

Enables the logging and reporting of accessed Protected Health Information.

User Roles & Permissions

Ability for improved security by assigning access rights to individuals users based on their function and responsibilities.

+ Testing & Production Server

DEVICES

Affordable Quote based plans
 inclusive of initial setup & training